Principal's Report

Athletics Carnival

Thank you to Mr Hesketh for his organisation of the Athletics Carnival last Friday. There was great participation from students in all events and it was wonderful to hear students encouraging one another to do their best throughout the day.

Thank you to the P&C for their delicious catering for the day and to parents and staff for their help to make the carnival run smoothly.

Learning

Our teachers and students continue on their path of learning with teachers attending Professional Learning this term in areas including Writing in the Middle Years and Language, Literacy and Learning (L3).

While students have been working hard in all areas, Primary students have reflected on their learning so far this year with the PLP meetings held with Primary staff.

Secondary students have been busy with their learning too – here is a small snapshot of current topics:

- Science – 7/8 Cells, classification and microbes; 9/10 Motion and Forces
- History – 7/8 Ancient China; 9/10 World War Two and the making of the modern world
- Technology – 7/8 designing sliding lid timber boxes with a 3D printed handle; 9/10 are designing a box using a range of imported and native timbers with a parquetry top using the CNC router
- Work Education - 9/10 Workplace Safety and documentation involved in work and work experience
- 9/10 English - expressing opinions and preparing a presentation
- 7/8 LOTE - basic expressions in Italian - greetings, numbers and phrases.

STEM Excitement

Our 9/10 STEM class are heading off to Wollongong on Thursday to participate in the State Finals of the Aeronautical Velocity Challenge. The best 8 school teams in the state compete against each other to build and fly planes.

Year 6 students will also attend to compete in the finals of the Rockets challenge.

Thanks to the P&C for their assistance in funding this extra-curricular activity and Mr Whytcross for his team building and expertise. We wish them the best of luck on Friday!!

Working With Children Check (WWCC)

The NSW Government has almost finished the phase in for the new WWCC. All people over 18 who work with children must have a Working With Children Check number which aims to keep our children safe. For more information about whether or not you need one see the brochure attached to this week's Gazette.

You can apply for one at this website:

<http://www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/child-safe-organisations/working-with-children-check/apply>

School Counsellor

A reminder that our school counsellor, Mrs Sandra Richardson, is available every Thursday for students and their families. Sandra has been an excellent addition to our school and she has made herself known to all of our students. Don't hesitate to contact us if you would like to speak with, or meet with her on a Thursday.

Have a wonderful week full of learning!

Sport Report

A massive thank you to everyone who helped out with the Annual Athletics Carnival, held on a glorious sunny day last Friday. I would like to especially mention Mrs Tubb and Mr Waid who have been wonderful over the years helping these carnivals run so smoothly. SA full report with champions, etc, is below but needless to say Farrer did a NSW Blues and finished over the top of the Reds of Macarthur.

The next carnivals are the Primary Cross Country on Thursday June the 15th and Secondary on Friday June the 16, both in Gundagai. Permission notes are now in for those 2 events. The Secondary Zone Athletics Carnival is Week 9 this term, Wednesday, June 21 in Ardlethan and the Primary Carnival is Week 3 of next term in Aria Park. I will be the team manager for the Secondary Cross Country team.

I'm waiting on details of the Under 15 AFL Carnival, scheduled for week 10 in Griffith and there are a couple of individual trials coming up, more details to follow ASAP.

Thank you again to everyone for last Friday, the P and C, staff, parents who came along and assisted and cheered on their kids and the students themselves for making it such a great day.

K/1 Class News

If there are any changes in how your child goes home in the afternoons can you please contact the school office or myself on class dojo.

A reminder about school requirements, if you haven't yet sent in your box of tissues for this term could you please do so. With the cold season upon us it will be important that students are using strategies to help minimise the spread of germs. Your assistance in helping to keep the students at BCS healthy is greatly appreciated.

Remember that students are encouraged to bring in a piece of fruit for Crunch and Sip. Students are also encouraged to bring in a water bottle.

If you need to get in contact with myself please send me a message on class dojo or leave a message at the office.

Thank you to all the parents who came to PLP meetings last week.

Weekly Events

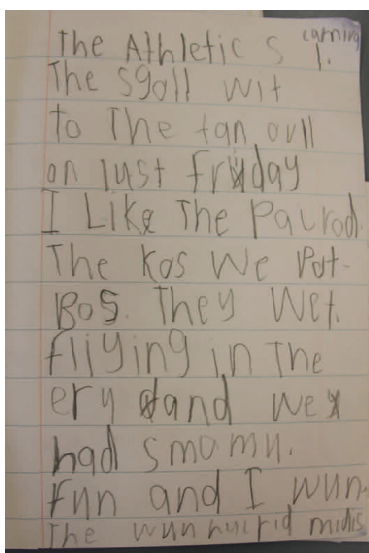

Monday	Is Library day so please ensure that students bring their library bags.
Tuesday	K/1 will be doing AFL clinics please ensure sports uniforms are worn . The dates for these clinics are 6/6, 13/6, 20/6
Friday	Sport Day, please ensure students wear their sports uniform

Homework

Home Reading	It is fantastic to see so many students reading at home. Please remember to write in home reading books each time your child reads. It is most helpful to us at school if you can continue to count of number of nights read by writing the number in the home reading book
--------------	--

In our classroom...

This term we are doing a lot of learning about writing. We have been writing sentences, beginning to sound out unknown words and we are learning how to make our writing interesting.

Athletics Carnival

Thank you to all Parents/Carers who came and supported students at the BCS Athletics Carnival . It was fantastic to see students enjoying themselves.

the working with children check Start Here

To apply for a Working With Children Check

- Fill out an online application form at www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/check
- When you have completed the application form, you will receive an Application number (APP) by email.
- Take this Application number and proof of your identity to a NSW motor registry or Service NSW Office. If you are in paid work, you will also need to pay a fee of $80.
- Your Application number can be used by an employer to verify your Check status. If the outcome of the verification is 'application in progress' you are allowed to begin working with children.
- Once your application has been processed and you are cleared, you will receive your Working With Children Check number (WWC) by email (or post if you do not have an email address).

Already in child-related work as a paid employee or volunteer?

If you are currently in child-related work you will be required to obtain a new Working With Children Check as part of an industry phase-in schedule.

To find out which sector you belong to and when you need to obtain a new Working With Children Check go to www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/check

Employers need to check the Check!

To comply with the legislation, employers need to go online to verify the status of a Working With Children Check number for any paid or volunteer staff in child-related work.

The Working With Children Check application number (APP) provides information on barred applicants and those who are subject to an interim bar.

Barred or interim barred persons will not be issued with a Working With Children Check clearance number (WWC). Employers need to verify the APP numbers for applicants so we can share this information.

The system also continuously checks for any new relevant criminal or workplace records.

Online verification is an important tool for employers to keep children safe in their organisation.

Employers must not rely on a notification or email from an employee or volunteer containing an application or clearance number. You must go online to check the Check is current and valid.

To register as an employer go to www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/check the working with children check

A Working With Children Check is a prerequisite for anyone in paid or voluntary child-related work in NSW.

The process involves a national police check and a review of findings of misconduct.

The result is either a clearance to work with children for five years or a bar against working with children.

Barred applicants may not work or volunteer with children.

A Working With Children Check is one of the tools available to keep children safe.

Having good child-safe policies and practices also helps to create safer environments for children.

For more information about being a 'child safe' organisation go to www.kidsguardian.nsw.gov.au/check

Promoting and regulating quality, child safe organisations and services

Who needs a Working With Children Check?

Only people in child-related work need to apply for a Check. Under the Child Protection (Working With Children) Act 2012, child-related work is defined as:

Who is exempt from a Working With Children Check?

The following roles, services and sectors are exempt:

- Administrative, clerical or maintenance work, or other ancillary work, that does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods.
- Work with minimal direct contact or unsupervised contact with children, done for no more than five days in a calendar year.
- Informal domestic arrangements not carried out on a professional or commercial basis.
- Work with close relatives of the worker (not including work as an authorised carer).
- Volunteering by a parent or close relative of a child (except where the work is part of a formal mentoring program or involves intimate personal care of children with a disability):
 - a) in activities for the child's school, early education service or other educational institution OR

- b) with a team, program or other activity in which the child usually participates or is a team member.
- A visiting speaker, adjudicator, performer, assessor or other similar visitor at a school or other place where child-related work is carried out if the work of the person at that place is for a one off occasion and is carried out in the presence of one or more other adults.
- A health practitioner in private practice, if the practice does not ordinarily involve treatment of children without one or more other adults present.
- A health practitioner who is working in and visiting New South Wales from outside the State, if the period of work does not exceed a total of five days in any period of three months.
- A co-worker or work supervisor where a child works.

- Work by an interstate visitor:
 - a) in a one-off event such as a jamboree, sporting or religious event or tour, if the event is the only child-related work carried out by the worker in NSW in that calendar year and the period of work does not exceed 30 days
 - b) who holds an interstate working with children check, or is exempt from the requirement to have such a check in his or her home jurisdiction, whose child related work in NSW is for no more than 30 days in any calendar year.
- NSW Police or Australian Federal Police officers in their capacity as police officers.
- Home carers accredited with a current police certificate for aged care, for home care work where the clients are not primarily children.
- People under the age of 18.

If your work falls into one of the following categories, it is also not considered to be child-related:

- Work as a student in the course of a student clinical placement in a hospital or other health service.
- Work as a referee, umpire, linesperson or otherwise as a sporting official or a groundskeeper if the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods without other adults being present.
- Work in providing respite care or other support services primarily for children with a disability is child-related work but it is not child-related work if the work does not ordinarily involve contact with children for extended periods without other adults being present.
- Providing food or equipment at or for a sporting, cultural or other entertainment venue or providing a venue.
